Lycan.

The Lycans came down the Allegheny River in a Flat Boat from Pa., to mouth of Sandy by push boat. Settled on Hurricane Creek — one about a mile up, the other near the head of the creek. Rev. Gooden Lycan's father was one — possibly Gooden, settled near the head.

Another bro. of Gooden L. Sr. settled below. (Sartin Lycan of Big Hurricane about 4-6 miles up, or about 2 mi below the Black Top road.

He is from the preacher's father's brother. Peyton Lycan was from the other family. Peyton's father was named Jack. Jack was a Union soldier. These Lycans were German — came to Pa. with Wm. Penn — Penn. Dutch.

Rudolph Hoosier was father of Peter Hoosier (Census 1850)

Peter was an old man when I was a small boy. He has been dead more than 50 years. I knew him. I saw him when I was going to Hubbardstown to the store. We lived on Hurricane. My father lived on Hurricane from the time he was 12 till he came here in 1895 and bought this farm, which cost $6000.
The R.R. paid us $6000 one time, 3950, another etc.
Hubbardstown was about 3 miles from our place.

Sam Vinson came to see him once and told him he had many streams, 150 men at work, creeks, etc. full of rafts of timber etc., and needed $1000 till the rivers rose so he could sell his timber. Gideon said old Gideon's got it, & kept repeating till dark. Sam rode a fine horse, was well dressed, etc. Kept asking whether he could get it, pressing the question. Finally Gid said old Gids got it but $ getting it is the hell of it. Gid was poorly dressed.
